Yana Caves - 53 km

Yana is famous for its striking black limestone rock formations, particularly the towering Bhairaveshwara Shikhara and Mohini Shikhara. Visitors can walk through a forest trail to reach the caves, where a naturally formed Shiva shrine adds to the spiritual significance of the place. The surrounding dense greenery makes the journey as scenic as the destination.

Vibhuti falls - 58km

Vibuthi Falls is a scenic waterfall tucked away in the lush forests of the Western Ghats, near Yana. The waterfall gets its name from the white limestone rocks found around the area, which resemble vibhuti (sacred ash). Reaching the falls involves a short trek through the forest, adding to the adventure. The cool, clear water and peaceful surroundings make it a refreshing spot to relax and enjoy nature, especially during the monsoon and post-monsoon season.

Magod falls - 46km

Magod Falls is formed by the Bedti River, which plunges dramatically from a height of nearly 200 metres into a deep rocky valley. The viewpoint provides spectacular views of the waterfall and the surrounding hills and forests. It is particularly scenic during and just after the monsoon.

Jenukallu gudda - 48km

Jenukallu Gudda is a picturesque hill and viewpoint offering expansive views of the Western Ghats and the valleys below. The area is known for its peaceful surroundings, misty landscapes, and beautiful sunsets. It is a good stop for enjoying the natural scenery without requiring a strenuous trek.

Marikamba temple - 14km

The Marikamba Temple in Sirsi is a famous temple dedicated to Goddess Marikamba, a form of Goddess Durga. The temple is known for its beautiful traditional architecture and strong cultural significance in the region. The grand Marikamba Jatre, held once every two years, attracts thousands of devotees and visitors from across Karnataka.

Sahasralinga - 27km

Sahasralinga is a unique sacred site on the banks of the Shalmala River, famous for the numerous Shiva Lingas carved directly into the rocks along the riverbed. The site also features beautifully carved Nandi sculptures facing the Lingas. Surrounded by forests and flowing water, it offers a peaceful blend of spirituality, history, and natural beauty.

Banavasi temple - 28km

Banavasi is an ancient town that served as the capital of the Kadamba dynasty, making it an important part of Karnataka's history. The town is best known for the Madhukeshwara Temple, an ancient temple dedicated to Lord Shiva, with distinctive stone carvings and traditional architecture. Its quiet surroundings and historical importance make Banavasi a fascinating destination for exploring Karnataka's heritage.
